Selling your Vehicle with “NO RESERVE” (selling at auction with no minimum sale price)

No Reserve attracts serious bidders. A vehicle being sold at No Reserve indicates to the buyers that it will be Sold to the highest bidder which in turn generates true auction block excitement, which typically equates to higher bids.

MARKETING / ENTRY FEE: $200

AFTER SALE COMMISSION FEE: 5 % (minimum $450)

Selling your Vehicle with a “RESERVE” (selling at auction with minimum sale price)

Selling vehicle with a reserve ensures a vehicle will not be sold for a price lower than seller sets as a bottom dollar. Sellers may decide to lower reserve at any time but may not raise the reserve amount once vehicle is consigned.

MARKETING / ENTRY FEE: $200

AFTER SALE COMMISSION FEE: 7 % (minimum $450)

Terms of Auction

1. Protected price may be lowered at any time by seller. Protected price cannot be raised after auction company has received a listing agreement. Commission fees shall be deducted directly from the proceeds of the sale of vehicle by Bees Auction.
2. If said vehicle is sold within 45 days after the sale to any person as a direct result of the auction, advertising or promotions, then I shall agree to pay the commission to Bees Auction on the stated reserve price.
3. Seller warrants that he/she is sole and only owner and has the right to sell vehicle and has clear consent from lienholder. Seller agrees to provide buyer with good, clear and transferable title and agrees to correct any title defects and/or pay the cost associated with providing buyer with good, clear and transferable title as required by the state where buyer seeks to register vehicle.
4. Seller agrees to consent to the sale of this vehicle subject to the terms and conditions contained herein and in the Purchase Invoice and Bill of Sale. Seller authorizes Bees Auction to release said vehicle to the successful buyer upon payment in full to Bees Auction. In the event that there is a delay in payment for any reason beyond Bees Auction control, seller may be asked to retain property or allow Bees Auction to arrange proper storage of said vehicle to be paid by bidder/purchaser, until payment has been received in full from bidder/purchaser. Upon payment being received in full by Bees Auction, seller agrees to transfer ownership to buyer and make arrangements to meet with Bees Auction and/or purchaser to deliver said sold vehicle and title. Proceeds from the sale may be withheld at Bees Auction discretion to satisfy any existing debt or obligation owed to Bees Auction by the seller. Payment checks for sold vehicles shall be made available to seller usually 3-5 days after the sale. In some rare cases (such as unforeseen title issues etc.) payment may be delayed for additional days or until issues are resolved.

Consigned item may remain unsold and returned to consignor with no repercussions to Bees Auction or it's providers. Auctioneer may, but will not be required to, continue, suspend, delay, extend, reschedule, close, re-set, or re-start the Auction because of disruptions caused by technology failures or errors, even after bidding has commenced. Seller understands that entry fees are not refundable. Title may be held by Bees Auction until any and all funds do clear Bees Auction bank or until cash is received.
